The complainant, Judith K. Shaull, called and advised a package was stolen from their mailbox yesterday. I responded and spoke with Mrs. Shaull and her husband. Mrs. Shaull advised she ordered kitchen towels and mats totaling $22.35 from Publishers Clearing House. The package was delivered yesterday between 1430-1500 hours and it was placed in their mailbox which is near the roadway. Around 1515 hours, her husband retrieved the mail and the shipping label was pulled from the package and placed in the mailbox. They contacted Publishers Clearing House and they requested Mrs. Shaull to file a police report.

Mrs. Shaull checked their surveillance camera and the mailbox was not in view. They made the necessary adjustments to include the location of the mailbox into the view of the camera. They were advised a report would be on file.
