Narrative: 20-191020 Page: 1

The complainant, Michael J. Kohler, called and advised that his sixteen year old daughter, Priscilla L. Kohler, and his girlfriend, Sharon Corwin, were involved in a fight. Ofc. J. England and I responded.

When we arrived, we were allowed into the residence by Mr. Kohler. Ms. Corwin advised an argument ensued between her and Priscilla over wet clothes from the laundry that were thrown onto their bed. Ms. Corwin stated Priscilla came after her and both went to the floor fighting. Priscilla advised the same events but that Ms. Corwin was snapping her work pants at her before she pulled her hair. Ms. Corwin declined to pursue the issue and it was agreed that Priscilla would go to her older sister's residence for the remainder of the day. After Priscilla gathered some personal items, she was transported on station. Once on station, Erika L. Hartman, came on station and took responsibility for Priscilla.
