Dispatch advised that interior motion alarms were activated at the Huron Public Library. Sgt. Orzech and myself responded and checked the perimeter of the building. all doors and windows were secure. Keyholder was contacted and responded to the building.

Sgt. Orzech and myself checked the interior and found a bat flying around inside the building. The bat flew into the Center Street vestibule and the inside door was secure. The janitor was notified that the alarms were deactivated until the bat is removed in the morning. Officers returned to service.
